

MEET YOUR PHOTOGRAPHER

Gurmit graduated as a visual artist, curious about the world and drawn to stories hidden in plain sight.

For over twenty years, he worked in corporate advertising—but behind every boardroom and brief, his camera was always at hand.

He dabbled in photowalks, pre-wedding and wedding shoots, music events, maternity sessions, family gatherings, and even distant destinations. Each frame whispered a promise: to capture the real, the unpolished, the moments often overlooked.

Eventually, he answered the call of creativity, leaving corporate life to pursue photography full-time and founding Of Wild Promises Photography.

Here, he doesn't just take photographs; he captures vows whispered in quiet corners, the chaos behind the curtain, the sparks that fly when no one is looking.

From the fierce tenderness of a wedding kiss to the raw energy of a metal riff, he lives in moments that defy perfection and pulse with truth.

Every shoot is a promise: to see you as you are. Wild. Beautiful. Unfiltered. Every frame is a vow to remember what matters most.

MY APPROACH

I don't chase perfection—I seek the in-between moments. The fleeting glances, offbeat smiles, and subtle chaos that emerge when no one is watching.

My work embraces the raw and authentic, where light meets emotion and every feeling runs deep. I move alongside you, not ahead, letting your story reveal itself naturally. Each laugh, pause, and heartbeat finds its place within the frame.

Whether it's a wedding, maternity session, or family portrait, I capture the kind of honesty that lingers long after the image fades. It's never about creating flawless pictures; it's about preserving the pulse beneath them.

My journalistic approach doesn't stage life; it honours it. From our first meeting, it's never just a transaction.

I come to the spaces where you feel most yourself, learning what makes you smile, what steadies you, what thrills you, the private jokes, the quirks, the scars—the wild, authentic essence of who you are.

At the heart of it, I just want to know what makes you, you.

FREQUENTLY ASKED QUESTIONS

What does “documentary-style” photography mean?

It means I photograph things as they naturally unfold, rather than constantly directing or posing you. I pay attention to the little interactions, expressions and moments in between; while including enough of your surroundings to tell the bigger story.

The idea is simple: I want to participate in your life and bring out all that is you in the photographs.

What do you mean by “customised signature style edits?”

Every image is thoughtfully edited—not with a one-size-fits-all filter, but with a curated preset to reflect you. Tones, light, shadows, and mood are shaped to echo your rhythm. From subtle crops to custom color grading, each frame is tailored so what you feel in the moment comes through long after.

Because your story deserves more than just beautiful photos. It deserves photos that feel like you.

Do you provide all the RAW images?

No. RAW files are essentially the unfinished ingredients, not the finished photographs. Every image you receive has been carefully selected and edited to reflect my style and the way I intended your story to be told. The editing is as much a part of my work as taking the photograph itself, so RAW files are not included in the final delivery.

But rest assured, if a photograph is good, you'll get it. They're your memories, after all.

What are some of your photos blur or shaky?

I capture what's real—the crooked smiles, fleeting glances, and in-betweens that matter more than a staged pose. Every photo is edited with a nostalgic, film-inspired touch to honour the mood, the memory, the moment.

If you're after something real that lets you relive it again and again—then let's chat.

Do we get a discount if we book several packages together?

Yes, absolutely. Book two packages—like a pre-wedding and wedding day—and get 10% off. Bundle three or more (maternity, family, etc.) for even bigger savings.

Because your story doesn't happen in one chapter and I'd be honoured to help you capture every part of it.

Do you do both photography and videography?

My focus is photography, but if you'd like videography as well, I work with a small group of trusted videographers whose approach complements mine.

I can arrange videography alongside your photography coverage, with preferential partner rates available, so everything can be kept simple and coordinated through me.

What if we're not comfortable in front of the camera?

You're definitely not alone — 99% of the people I photograph will tell me they have no idea what to do in front of a camera. And that's completely fine, because I'm not expecting you to pose. Just be yourselves, interact with each other and enjoy whatever you're doing. I'll be there with you, finding the moments, expressions and little things that happen naturally along the way.

You don't need to perform for the camera. You just need to be you.

This all sounds great! How do I proceed with booking?

Perfect! Once you're ready, simply fill in the contact form and I'll take it from there. I'll send you a contract with the usual terms and conditions to review and sign electronically. A 50% deposit is required to secure and confirm your date.

Once that's sorted, I'll reach out to arrange a call so I can get to know you, hear your story and understand what's important to you.

Just one thing to note — your date remains open until the deposit has been received, so the booking is only confirmed once that's done.
