

MEET YOUR PHOTOGRAPHER

Gurmit graduated as a visual artist, curious about the world and drawn to stories hidden in plain sight.

For over twenty years, he worked in corporate advertising—but behind every boardroom and brief, his camera was always at hand.

He dabbled in photowalks, pre-wedding and wedding shoots, music events, maternity sessions, family gatherings, and even distant destinations. Each frame whispered a promise: to capture the real, the unpolished, the moments often overlooked.

Eventually, he answered the call of creativity, leaving corporate life to pursue photography full-time and founding Of Wild Promises Photography.

Here, he doesn't just take photographs; he captures vows whispered in quiet corners, the chaos behind the curtain, the sparks that fly when no one is looking.

From the fierce tenderness of a wedding kiss to the raw energy of a metal riff, he lives in moments that defy perfection and pulse with truth.

Every shoot is a promise: to see you as you are. Wild. Beautiful. Unfiltered. Every frame is a vow to remember what matters most.

MY APPROACH

I don't chase perfection—I seek the in-between moments. The fleeting glances, offbeat smiles, and subtle chaos that emerge when no one is watching.

My work embraces the raw and authentic, where light meets emotion and every feeling runs deep. I move alongside you, not ahead, letting your story reveal itself naturally. Each laugh, pause, and heartbeat finds its place within the frame.

Whether it's a wedding, maternity session, or family portrait, I capture the kind of honesty that lingers long after the image fades. It's never about creating flawless pictures; it's about preserving the pulse beneath them.

My journalistic approach doesn't stage life; it honours it. From our first meeting, it's never just a transaction.

I come to the spaces where you feel most yourself, learning what makes you smile, what steadies you, what thrills you, the private jokes, the quirks, the scars—the wild, authentic essence of who you are.

At the heart of it, I just want to know what makes you, you.

FREQUENTLY ASKED QUESTIONS

Do we get a discount if we book several packages together?

Yes, absolutely. Book two packages—like a pre-wedding and wedding day—and get 10% off. Bundle three or more (maternity, family, etc.) for even bigger savings.

Because your story doesn't happen in one chapter and I'd be honoured to help you capture every part of it.

What do you mean by “customised signature style edits?”

Every image is thoughtfully edited—not with a one-size-fits-all filter, but with a curated preset to reflect you.

Tones, light, shadows, and mood are shaped to echo your rhythm. From subtle crops to custom color grading, each frame is tailored so what you feel in the moment comes through long after.

Because your story deserves more than just beautiful photos. It deserves photos that feel like you.

What are some of your photos blur or shaky?

I capture what's real—the crooked smiles, fleeting glances, and in-betweens that matter more than a staged pose. Every photo is edited with a nostalgic, film-inspired touch to honour the mood, the memory, the moment.

If you're after something real that lets you relive it again and again—then let's chat.

This all sounds great! How do I proceed with booking?

Perfect! Once you're ready to confirm, please fill in the contact form on our website.

Once done, we will send you the contract to look over some terms and conditions. Simply review and sign with your e-signature, together with a 50% deposit payment to book and confirm the slot.

Do note that the date will still be an open date until the deposit payment is made.

“Working with Of Wild Promises was an amazing experience. Gurmit made us feel comfortable from the start and captured every moment with such care and creativity!

Every photo felt natural, meaningful, and authentically us. We are so grateful to have him capture these photos which serve as a timeless reflection of our love and our journey together.”

- Daryle & Whitney

“We did our pre-wedding shoot with Of Wild Promises and it was such a fun time! The whole experience was really different. Instead of just asking us to pick a place, Gurmit got to know us as a couple and then planned locations around that. It felt way more personal and natural.

During the shoot, he made us feel super comfortable. We didn't have to do or think about anything, just show up and enjoy ourselves. Honestly it just felt like friends hanging out.

Needless to say, the photos turned out amazing with a huge mix of shots and a great variety that naturally captured different sides of us.”

- Hans & Oli

I had a wonderful experience working with Of Wild Promises for my Ayurveda workshop.

Gurmit captured the calm, intention and atmosphere of the session so beautifully, without ever feeling intrusive or disruptive to the flow of the workshop.

From the small details to the quiet, meaningful interactions throughout the day, the images reflected the essence of the experience perfectly.

I'm grateful to have the workshop documented in a way that feels thoughtful, respectful and true to the space and energy we wanted to create.

10/10 would recommend and can't wait to work with him again!

- Muffyn Liuliu

“Our experience with Of Wild Promises was truly exceptional. From our very first conversation to the day of the shoot, everything felt effortless and completely natural.

Gurmit has a wonderful way of making us feel comfortable and at ease, turning the entire session into a uniquely fun and memorable moment.

The photos turned out stunning, and we're so grateful to have them as a heartfelt reflection of our love and the journey we share.”

- Basile & Dunice

We had a wonderful experience working with Of Wild Promises from start to finish. Everything felt calm and unforced, which really mattered during a busy, energetic celebration. Instead of stiff posing, moments were allowed to unfold naturally.

The photos captured so many genuine, joyful details from Tyler's celebration; the laughter, movement, and small in-between moments you don't always notice on the day. Looking back at the images brought us right back to how it all felt.

We're incredibly grateful to have these memories documented so thoughtfully. The photos feel true to who we are as a family and are something we'll treasure for years to come.
